

Shri H. K. Jaggi, has Joined as new General Manager, Northeast Frontier Railway Construction. Before joining NF Railway Construction organization he served as Chief Administrative Officer (Construction) at Northern Railway. He graduated from Delhi college of Engineering in the year 1978 securing first class with distinction. He also holds a PG Diploma in Public Administration from IIPA.

Shri Jaggi has worked in various important posts in different parts of the country. Before his posting as GM, he worked as CAO/CON, Northern Railway. As Chief Administrative Officer, he headed important construction and survey projects including new lines, doubling and remodeling of major yards. His other important postings had been Secretary - Railway Board, Advisor (L&A) - Ministry of Railways, Principal Chief Engineer-North West Railway, Divisional Railway Manager - Ambala, Chief Track Engineer - Northern Railway and Chief Bridge Engineer - Northern Railway.

He attended several National and International workshops and training programs and also visited Argentina, Belgium, China, France, Italy, Mexico, Russia, Singapore and UK during official trips.